

Klinefelter Park

Right in St. Joe, Klinefelter has a half mile paved path that circles a beautiful pond. It is common to see a variety of wildlife including mallard ducks and squirrels. On the path you'll cross a couple of bridges and pass a natural prairie restoration.

In this one park you'll experience a wetland, an oak forest, and prairie. See how many laps it takes you to reach 10,000 steps.